Our responsible lending obligations

Under the NCCP Act, we are obliged to ensure that any loan or principal increase to a loan we make and any lease we enter with you is not unsuitable for you. To decide this, we will need to ask you some questions in order to assess whether the loan or lease is not unsuitable. The law requires us to:

- ▶ make reasonable inquiries about your requirements and objectives
- ▶ make reasonable inquiries about your financial situation
- ▶ take reasonable steps to verify that financial situation

Credit will be unsuitable if at the time of the assessment, it is likely that at the time the credit is provided:

- ▶ you could not pay or only pay with substantial hardship
- ▶ the credit will not meet your requirements and objectives

For example, if you can only repay by selling your principal place of residence, it is presumed that the loan will cause substantial hardship unless the contrary is proved. For this reason we must ask you to provide a significant amount of information. It is therefore very important that the information you provide us is accurate.

We must provide you with a copy of our preliminary credit assessment of your application if you ask within 7 years of when we assist you. We are only required to give you a copy of the credit assessment if we give you credit assistance.

If we arrange a loan for you to purchase or refinance real estate, remember you must make your own enquiries about the value of the real estate and its potential for future growth. Although we may obtain a valuation, that is for our own use and you should not rely on it.

Fees payable by you

We do not charge you for our services as we are paid commission by the financier. However, you may need to pay the financier's application fee, valuation fees, and other fees.

Commissions received by us

We may receive commissions from the lenders and lessors who provide finance for our customers. These are not fees payable by you. You can obtain additional information about these commissions by asking us.

From time to time we are able to negotiate volume bonuses with lenders. These lenders may pay us an additional commission depending on the total volume of business we arrange with them. Irrespective of this, we ensure that loan products are matched to the requirements of each consumer.

We have a volume bonus arrangement in place with ANZ, ING Direct and Liberty Financial under which those financiers may pay us additional commission depending on the total volume of business we arrange with them.

Commissions payable by us

We source referrals from a broad range of sources. For example, we may pay fees to call centre companies, real estate agents, accountants, or lawyers for referring you to us. These referral fees are generally small amounts and accord with usual business practice. These are not fees payable by you. On request you can obtain a reasonable estimate of the amount of commission and how it is worked out.
